MBF Life Fellow Denise Squillante takes the helm of the MBA

The MBF congratulates Denise Squillante as she begins her term as President of the Massachusetts Bar Association. Squillante, an MBF Fellow since 2003, is a solo practitioner in Fall River, an active bar member, and a champion of domestic violence programs in her local community. She takes the helm in the MBA's centennial year.

Best wishes, Denise!

Education and the Law Conference to take place October 15 at UMass School of Law at Dartmouth

On October 15, the University of Massachusetts School of Law at Dartmouth is hosting its first event as a public law school - a full day conference featuring panel discussions and individual presentations on Trends and Issues in Education and the Law.

The conference will run from 9 am - 5 pm at the UMass School of Law/ Dartmouth campus. A luncheon will be served featuring a keynote presentation by:

Charles Rose, Esq.
General Counsel to the U.S. Department of Education.

Conference speakers will include:

Dr. Rod Paige
former U.S. Secretary of Education

Paul Reville
Mass. Secretary of Education

David Schimmel
UMass Amherst and visiting professor at Harvard's Graduate School of Education

Colonel Jody Prescott
West Point Military Academy,

Fellow Spotlight: Francis A. Ford

Given his extensive involvement in the Massachusetts legal community, MBF past president and Worcester attorney Fran Ford needs little introduction. The former Worcester county clerk of courts has been practicing law for over 30 years and currently runs a successful mediation practice at Fletcher, Tilton & Whipple.

With an exuberant personality and an energy level to match, Ford is the consummate "people person"- complete with quick wit, playful spirit, and infectious laugh. He is a practitioner who truly loves the aspects of his job that involve the collegiality, networking, and consensus building that many today must defer in the face of endless to-do lists and the quest for the billable hour.
